Message from Deacon Tim

Things are getting busier here at St. Andrew Catholic Community. You may have noticed that registration is on for religious education classes. Classes won't start until mid-September, but by registering now you can save $5 and make sure we order the correct number of materials. We offer classes on Wednesday after school for children in grades Kindergarten thru 5th. Monday evenings from 7 until 8:15, we offer classes for junior high school students (6th, 7th, and 8th grades). Sunday nights, also from 7 until 8:15, is class for our high school students.

Faith formation is for all of us, no matter our age. Adult classes will be coming in October, so watch the bulletin. The Breaking Open the Word will resume on Wednesday mornings beginning September 6, 9 am until 10:30 am. Did you know we are supposed to come to Mass already knowing what the readings will be?! Joining us on Wednesdays will help you be prepared. We read and discuss the upcoming Sunday readings, and cover saints and other interesting Catholic topics. You can see Jenifer in the hall after Mass to learn more.

The high school RE class will be hosting our annual Ice Cream Social on Sunday, September 24. Watch the bulletin for more information.

As parents we are the first and primary educators of our children and the stewards of the future of the Church. Let's stand firm.
