High School	Tonight, Sunday, October 8, at 7 pm! We have a fun group and some new faces. If your teen hasn't been in a while, they are welcome to join us. The more the merrier!
Junior High	Monday, October 9, at 7 pm in the parish hall! Tonight we will start our Bible Adventure. If you can be there, join us for the introduction. There will be ice cream!
Elementary	– Wednesday, October 11, from 3:15 – 4:15. This will be a regular class day. Last week we celebrated October birthdays and enjoyed the beautiful outside! Please help us keep everyone safe at church, especially in the parish hall, by not allowing your children to run inside. Many thanks!

Blessing of the Animals

Last Wednesday we gathered on the labyrinth and blessed our pets. Thanks Deacon Tim for powering thru for fur babies! The full moon made it extra special.

Reflection on a Tragic Event

After the very tragic event in Las Vegas this week people are having different reactions depending how closely they were affected by shootings. Some in our parish were very close to some of the victims while many not so close. However, when a tragedy of this magnitude occurs in our country it likely ripples across the country like a boulder on a small pond. This rippling, like the aftershocks of an earthquake leaves behind trauma in the form of shock, sadness, stress, hopelessness and a shaking of faith.

Although, when there is a strong community of faith such as we have in Southern Nevada and especially here at St. Andrew, there is an even greater ripple, a tsunami of love, hope and faith that shatters the evil and brings light to the darkness. As strong as our faith may be, we must also be aware of the psychological trauma these events cause even though we are not directly affected. Take inventory of your emotions in the coming weeks, are you not sleeping, are you obsessed with following the news all day and night, do you continue to feel sadness and hopelessness, are you feeling stressed? If so, please seek out professional mental health care.

Here at St. Andrew we will continue to support each other with our love of God and love of neighbor. We will let our lights shine for all in darkness and pray for those in need. All are welcome in this house.

Blessings,
Deacon Tim
